Dear Parent:

Your child's love of reading starts here!

Every child learns to read in a different way and at his or her own speed. Some go back and forth between reading levels and read favorite books again and again. Others read through each level in order. You can help your young reader improve and become more confident by encouraging his or her own interests and abilities. From books your child reads with you to the first books he or she reads alone, there are I Can Read Books for every stage of reading:

SHARED READING

Basic language, word repetition, and whimsical illustrations, ideal for sharing with your emergent reader

BEGINNING READING

Short sentences, familiar words, and simple concepts for children eager to read on their own

READING WITH HELP

Engaging stories, longer sentences, and language play for developing readers

READING ALONE

Complex plots, challenging vocabulary, and high-interest topics for the independent reader

ADVANCED READING

Short paragraphs, chapters, and exciting themes for the perfect bridge to chapter books

I Can Read Books have introduced children to the joy of reading since 1957. Featuring award-winning authors and illustrators and a fabulous cast of beloved characters, I Can Read Books set the standard for beginning readers.

A lifetime of discovery begins with the magical words "I Can Read!"

Spring had arrived!

The  had melted.

The  had turned green

and the  was shining.

“Look at these  !”

said Cheerilee.

Cheerilee put her

are beautiful!”

said Scootaloo from her

“I’ll paint the

so it can be pretty, too,”

added Toola-Roola happily.

But Cheerilee wasn’t listening.

The  and the new
gave Cheerilee a good idea.

“Let’s call today Green Day!”
she said.

“We can make Ponyville
look extra-pretty.

Let’s find fun ways to reuse
what we already have.”

“Here are some cans,”

Cheerilee said.

“You can turn them

into pots for

with a little paint!”

she said to Toola-Roola.

The ponies were happy.

All except Toola-Roola.

“Let’s start planting the
and painting the flower pots,”
Cheerilee said.

“Painting was my idea,”
said Toola-Roola.

She held up her .

But Cheerilee was too busy
to hear her friend.

Toola-Roola put down

her  .

“I have ideas, too,”

she said to Cheerilee.

Scootaloo came over

on her  to see

why Toola-Roola was upset.

Cheerilee put her

“Toola-Roola,” said Cheerilee.

“I talked the whole time!”

Cheerilee felt terrible that she hadn’t let Toola-Roola speak.

“I’m so sorry,” she said.

“That’s okay, Cheerilee,”

Toola-Roola said.

“Let’s all share our ideas!”

Cheerilee looked happy.

“Should we plant
near the  ?” she asked.

“I’ll use the cans you found for the pots,” said Toola-Roola.

The ponies were excited about their first Green Day.

“I found some leftover paint!”
said Cheerilee.

Toola-Roola smiled.

“I can use that paint for the

,” she said to Cheerilee.

“I made my watering can
from an old milk bottle!”

Scootaloo said proudly.

At last, Ponyville sparkled.

Cheerilee gave Toola-Roola  .

“I love Green Day.

Let’s do it again!” said Toola-Roola.
